There will be special practice on Monday night, 23rd inst., at seven o'clock, of the above named teams on the Exhibition Grounds. All the players of both the "A" and "B" teams are requested to be present, also all interested and intending players, whether signed as players or who have in any way been approached in regard to playing for either of the two teams. There are several signed players who haven't turned up as yet. We want to see a good turn out at each practice. At the practices next week the teams will be picked to play against the "Georgies" and the Sons of England. Calties turn out in your numbers. The secretaries of both teams are on hand to receive the signatures of all interested and intending players.

CHESTY COX IS IN TOWN

Lethbridge Team Will Play To-Day at 3 and 6.15—Cox Signs Samuels and Gouchee.

Our old college chum, Chesty Cox, the vanderlin, and his crew of Lethbridge miners, arrived in the city yesterday for a five-game series with the Eskimos. There will be two games today at three and 6.15 with Delmar and Gray doing the pitching. Rich and Lizzie will pitch for the visitors. Lethbridge will also play on Monday and two games Tuesday, which is Victoria Day.

Chesty has a team of heavy hitters but is weak in the pitching department, having only one pitcher of class, and that is Phil Lizzie. However, Mr. Cox got right busy when he arrived here, and after a little talk, got the signatures of Lee Samuels and Gouchee to Lethbridge contracts. In Samuels, Chesty has signed an excellent twirler and we will be sorry to have him working against the Eskimos. With warm weather Lee will show some classy mound work. Gouchee is also a reliable player, but seems to have lost his batting eye temporarily.

If the suspension of Baxter and Olsen holds, Deacon will have to play today, while Ward will take Olsen's place in centre pasture.

A New Umpire

Sam Neelds, has been appointed umpire in the Western Canada League.

Sam is a ball player and knows the game from the bottom up. He is a good arbir, with plenty of nerve and a very excellent presence. He has worked here in emergencies and he handles himself very well. Sam should make good at the new job—Exchange.

Jack Johnson was voted as being the Laziest Nigger in Galveston—Fought 20 Rounds for a Quarter.

Jack Johnson in his early days, used to be too strong to work. He was the laziest nigger in Galveston when it came to manual labor. He would lie around the club rooms and he would lox with any one who cared to put on the gloves with him, but he wouldn't handle a cotton hoe. He looked no bigger than a side of a house, and very few of the young men gave him much trouble.

It was a rare thing for him to have a dollar. He would gladly put on the gloves and fight half a dozen rounds for a quarter of fifty cents. If he got $5 at once it was riches beyond the dreams of avarice. When he boxed with any one, when there was an audience present, it was not for any $10.00 purse—there were no moving picture rights either. The crowd would throw nickels on the floor of the ring and he and the other fellow would dance around and pick up the stuff with great delight. If there seemed likely to be $2 or $3 to split up Johnson would grin beatifically all the time.

Boxing wasn't work, of course. You would never see Johnson down around the wharf or out in the railroad yards or at the great cotton compresses. He could have made $6 or $7 a day "cotton jamming" as hundreds of other negroes in town did, except for William Parr or for the Mallory line; but Johnson was quite content to loaf around Porcine street, where a horde of negroes, whose wives or sisters or mothers of sweethearts supported them by working as cooks in the families of the well-to-do whites, used to congregate.

BILLY PAPKE GOT DECISION

Knocked Out Joe Thomas in the Sixteenth Round on Friday Night at Frisco.

San Francisco, May 21.—Billy Papke knocked out Joe Thomas in the sixteenth round at Dreamland to-night. If a vote had been taken in the crowd filed out of the pavilion it would have developed probably that seven spectators out of ten were of the opinion that Papke fought under a wrap for fifteen rounds. The contest had a weird look. Papke did not cut loose with a punch that had any "whizz" to it, until the fifteenth round. Then he let fly with left swings and right swings and he worked a short right uppercut in the clinches. Thomas, whose strength had been waxing for a few rounds, wilted perceptibly under the punishment and it was no trick for Papke to finish the business in the following round.

Excitement was High

The Aliberton says: "From the appearance of the Edmonton papers that Berg never knew what real joy was until the Deacon trimmed Bill Carney in the fifth innings game. Excitement was then so high that some of the more enthusiastic fans threw themselves down before the wild-eyed automobiles, like the juggernaut game as we read about it in the sacred books. Captain Kidd got up on the grand stand and tried to jump his board bill and there were other strange, mysterious and unusual doings.

Of course, we do not like to get games by default, but a man should not come to the plate without being attired in the proper kind of socks.

Winnipeg Makes Kick

Winnipeg is out with another kick. At the meeting held in Medicine Hat last week, Winnipeg was not present.

In the absence of such an august, mighty proposition the teams decided to pool all holiday games and split up on the proceeds. Edmonton alone dissented. But now up rises the Winnipeggers and protest very strongly.

We Were Excited, Too.

The good people of Calgary had a little game of thrills all their own last night, and got three different and distinct reports of the ball game in Edmonton. First it came over the wire that Calgary had won by a score of nine to nothing. The looked pretty much like a foretold game, and as there was no particulars, the fans were quite satisfied with the outcome. This was followed soon after by a bulletin which showed that the game ended four all. That put a different light upon the game. But this in turn was followed by the first report, but this came along after most of the fans had received the other bulletins and retired in anything but good humor—Albertain.

A Strange Telegram

Holding that an umpire has no jurisdiction over the players except while they are actually in the field, and that therefore Umpire Longnecker was not justified in suspending Baxter and Olsen for six days, the Edmonton team will withdraw from the Western Canada League unless these men are re-instated.

Mr. Gray, the president of the Edmonton Baseball club, communicated this decision by wire yesterday to E. R. Eckstrom, president of the Western Canada League. His telegram is as follows: E. R. Eckstrom, Lethbridge, president Western Canada League: If Baxter and Olsen are not re-instated immediately Edmonton withdraws from the league. Notify your teams accordingly.

Then and Now

The multi-millionaire was despondent. With all his vast libraries and free shooting galleries for the poor, he could not get rid of his sorrowful "And to think," he mused in deep meditation, "with all my success with my rich-get-rich scheme, my poor quick schemes have me beaten."

RESUME OF THE FIRST WEEK

How the Clubs Figure in Runs, Hits and Errors—Record of the Local Team.

The following table, compiled by a local expert in figures will give the baseball doers some food for thought. It shows the relative batting strength of the different teams and also their skill in the field:

Games played.
	R.	H.	E.
Edmonton	12	43	71
Lethbridge	11	38	75
Medicine Hat	11	38	88
Calgary	11	42	88
Regina	9	42	51
Moose Jaw	10	38	72
Brandon	12	39	42
Winnipeg	11	44	61

Medicine Hat and Calgary lead in team batting while four other teams are lashed for second. Regina and Winnipeg figure as the weakest hitters. The Maroons have only 44 runs to their credit, of which total, 20 were made in one innings. Lethbridge has 46 errors to its credit, while Winnipeg has only ten, which is less than 1 per cent, and a mighty creditable average.

In the recent series with Calgary the Eskimos got two wins and a tie game out of four games played. Edmonton made 12 runs, 24 hits and ten errors, while the Huskies compiled 7 runs, 22 hits and 9 errors. Neither team did much in the line of batting, so we must take it for granted that the pitching staffs of both teams have it on the bat.

Owls, Olsen and Luss: did the best batting for the locals. Mills hit safely 4 times out of 17 times at bat; Luss, 3 times out of 14, and Olsen 3 times out of 13. Spenser and Burridge who only batted three times, got two hits each.

That will be seen that the splen did pitching and fielding of the local is winning the games. The batting is not yet up to the mark.

TOM LONGBOAT IS DEAD BROKE

Had $8,000 Just a Year Ago and Now his Little Cottage has a "For Sale" Sign on it.

Toronto, May 21.—Some people are asking, "Where and how is Tom Longboat?"

And, if reports are true, it wouldn't be a bad idea for more than an inquisitive interest in the running, edskin. Tom is peculiarly non-communicative because he is an Indian. And he isn't an experienced business man, nor a capable financier. Which affords good grounds for sharp work at the Orandaga's expense, and hence the rumor.

It is whispered that Longboat has bought, or, rather thinks he has bought, an "eight thousand dollar house." In fact, Tom says so himself.

Now this is as much as his friends know. As the Indian and his wife manage their own affairs and say nothing, there isn't much chance of finding out the actual particulars. Anyway, when Tom left Tom Flanagan's foot and guidance one year ago, he had in his hip pocket a name in the Imperial bank vaults, exactly $7,000. Most of this was coined in a few weeks. Since then Tom has bought a neat cottage for $3,100, and has cleaned up a lot more cash on the track. Now it is said that the bank book shows a very small part of this amount, opposite the name of "Longboat's," his own little cottage has a "For sale" sign on it, there are no papers to show that a recent eight thousand dollar purchase, and the Indian's friends are wondering what it all means.

It Didn't Take

"Do you consider that marriage is a failure?" asked the investigator who was gathering data for a contemplated book on matrimony.

ARTHUR LIKES FAST HORSES

As Rickard Won't Let him Speed in an Auto, the Smoke Burns up Boulevards Behind a Pacer.

San Francisco, May 21.—Just to prove to Tex Rickard and others who are concerned regarding his safety for the next two months that an automobile is not the only means of travel, Jack Johnson is doing some of his speeding along the park boulevards behind Little Dick, a local pacer, who has been loaned to him for the occasion by one of his friends. The idea came to the fighter when one of the newspaper photographers saw the rig in front of his training quarters, and suggested that he would like a picture of two. Johnson agreed to the picture, and after that was over remarked that he would like to take a turn up the road.

"Go ahead," said the owner, who is a Johnson admirer, "and you can have him out here every morning or afternoon you want."

His rides will not be that frequent, but Jack has declared his intention of going out behind the side-wheeler three times a week at the very least.

"I want to tell you, Mr. Rickard," he said to Tex, when the latter was warning the negro not to be so careless, "that's all a mistake about my being careless. I know what this rig means to me, and when I am training for a fight there is no one more careful than I am. Of course, I am going to ride around in my machine because it is a pleasure, but there will be nothing reckless about my driving and you will have no reason to be worried over me."

Says a newspaper down the line: "Owing to the overcrowded conditions of our columns, a number of births and deaths are unavoidably delayed."

FRANK CHANCE MAY RETIRE

The Peerless Leader of the Cubs Intends Taking to the Beach—Luderus Will Play First.

Chicago, May 20.—The present illness of Manager Frank Chance, of the Cubs, and the good playing of Fred Luderus, his understudy, at first base, may lead to one of the most radical changes that have been made since Chance took the management of the west side team, and began winning pennants. It may lead to Luderus being placed on the team as regular first baseman.

Although the peerless leader is not eager to desert his favorite position, it is believed that the time for him to join the ranks of the bench managers is close at hand. He is not through as a player by any means, but the task of managing the team while playing an infield position has become so great that he may decide to turn over the sack to an efficient substitute.

Chance values the services of Luderus highly and predicts that he will become the best first baseman in the country. When the youngster broke into the major league late in the season of 1909 he made a place for himself immediately. Chance is in need of his rest, and so long as Luderus does his work on the field, the manager need be in no haste to get back into the game.

There is not a playing manager in the American league and only two in the National. Fred Clarke and Frank Chance being the only men who manage major league teams and play too. It is known that Clarke is seeking a left fielder to take his place. He says the task of running a team and playing is too severe. But the strain is even greater upon an infielder, and that is why Chance will cease to surprise if he keeps on the bench and lets Luderus attend to first base.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR

Governor Gillette States Jeffries-Johnson Fight is of National Interest—Beats the Comet.

Chicago, May 21.—Governor J. M. Gillette, of California, who passed through Chicago on his way home from Washington, in discussing the Jeffries-Johnson fight said:

"The fight seems to be the biggest national interest there is and I do not believe there is any desire to prevent it. I do not believe any sentiment against the meeting has taken form. "It will bring hundreds of persons to the coast and leave thousands of dollars in San Francisco and will be a big thing, a big thing."

"Judging by the way our party has been met and questions put to us, there is no doubt about the interest in the fight. To the people of the United States it is a bigger thing than the passage or defeat of important legislation, Roosevelt's triumphal tour or even the approach of the comet."

Same Material

"The conductor on an Avenue road car is beginning to take an interest in astronomy."

"It is a wonderful thing this Hatley's Comet," said he this morning to a passenger. "What do you think it's made of?"

"Oh, gas and minerals, they say," replied the fare, "but mainly conjecture."

"Sure, that's what I think myself," quoth the budding astronomer, "and I guess Mars and Venus and the rest of them are made of the same stuff."

"What stuff?"

"Why, conjecture."—Toronto Telegram.

Edmonton Paid Tribute

him yesterday at the university. "Did you see him?" said I. "Yes, sir, my wife and I stood by the barricade from eight o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon to watch him go by," was the reply. "And when I saw him I burst into tears and so did my wife. We love the King, sir." That day one hundred thousand people, the workmen of Birmingham, similarly paid their respect and homage.

That he so completely gained the affection and love of all classes in such diversified social conditions as are found in the British Empire, it declares him to have been an extraordinary man.

The Ideal of the Race.

I believe I am justified in making the statement that he more fully embodied in himself the qualities of mind and heart which go to make the British race as a whole than any Englishman who has ever lived.

What shall I say in conclusion? He is gone and we remain. I am sure if he could speak to us he would say: "Let your measure of love and respect be your devotion to our national ideal. Nations like me come and go but the ideals for which they stood remain great as ever, the traditions and ideals of the nations of antiquity, they were inconsistent with the rise to equal greatness of other nations. To the British people through ages bequeathed the responsibility of demonstrating that national greatness are consistent with liberty and justice. Ours is an imperial race. Our mission surely is to make these traditions a permanent possession of the world. With loyalty to King George V., a loyalty which is not an attachment to a person only, but a devotion to the empire and the ideals for which the empire stands, let us go from this gathering determined to bear our part of this imperial responsibility."

The Parade

The different organizations composing the parade lined up in their order of precedence at the rendezvous at 2:15 o'clock. The officers of "A" Squadron, Alberta Mounted Rifles, including Lt.-Col. Belcher, C.M.G., were in the lead followed by the non-coms, and men of the same corps. Then came the 10th Fusiliers under the command of Lt.-Col. Edwards, preceded by the regimental band. Next in order of precedence came the Edmonton Cadets under Lt. C. R. Flint; the Edmonton Boys Brigade under Ven. Archdeacon Gray; the civic authorities, including Mayor Lee; the Citizens band, preceding the members of St. George's Society; the Sons of England; the Caledonian Society; St. Andrew's Society; the Edmonton Irish Association; the veterans. Mayor Carstairs acted as marshal.

The military organizations had their drums and bugles covered with crepe, while the officers wore mourning on their left arms. The members of the various fraternal and patriotic societies had rows of purple ribbons attached to their badges. The large cross of St. George accompanying the society of that name, was also decorated with mourning as was the Union Jack preceding the Sons of England.

The school children wore badges specially prepared for the occasion. The ranks of the streets were so congested with people that mounted policemen were necessary to keep clear the line of march.

Crush at the Door

A tremendous crush occurred outside the rink. The public were not supposed to enter until the parade had been safely passed. When the children and soldiers were safely in, however, the crowd surged forward and overwhelmed the four policemen who guarded the main entrance. For a minute or two it looked as though there was going to be trouble, but four mounted police plunged into the crowd, and cleared a wide circle just opposite to the entrance. This put an end to the crush, and the rest of the paraders were hustled in, and then the public had their innings.

Officers Swear Allegiance
After the ceremony in the rink was over, the troops went to the armories, where the oath of allegiance was administered to the officers. From here the Alberta Mounted Rifles, the Fusiliers, the Cadets, and the Boys Brigade, all marched over the McKay street school grounds, to the accompaniment of a stirring march. Arrived there they lined up on three sides of a square, gave the royal salute, and then three cheers and a tiger for King George the Fifth. From there the troops were marched to the armories, where they disbanded.

Boys Were the Best.
It was rather amusing, and also very noticeable, that the boys' brigade, composed of the smallest boys, some so small in fact that their rifles were a good deal larger than themselves, went through their part of the manoeuvres with far more precision and unity than did the regular militiamen.

MARRIAGE NO JOY THERE

French Capital has Only Seven Happy Married Couples.

Paris, May 21.—Paris, the gayest city in the world, has only seven married couples who really are happy.

This information is given in statistics just published which concern the relative state of conjugal felicity in the capital.

There are 1,362 wives who have left their husbands for others, and 2,371 husbands who have run away from their wives; 4,120 couples have separated amicably; while no fewer than 19,123 "menages" live at war under the same roof.

The number of those who "hating one another cordially, make in public ferocious enemy search appearances of assumed politeness" is large, amounting to 162,230, while the record in the list is held by couples who are visibly indifferent to one another—namely, 510,132.

Further, 1,102 couples are wrongly thought to be happily married, while there are 135 "menages" happy in comparison with others more unhappy.

He was surprised at how the same healed. "I took your New Kidney Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians and had tried all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicine the symptoms would break out again—running sores, itches, rheumatic pains, loss of the hair, swellings of the glands, pains of the hands, swelling, redness of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks from the commencement to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Kidney Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of my disease show. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend your treatment with all my heart. FORTUNES IN CALIFORNIA OIL

One Good Investment Worth a Life-Time of Labour
Here is an Opportunity for the Man of small means

This advertising announcement is especially directed to such readers of this paper as are honestly interested in their future; men and women who are not living altogether for today, but who have before them a definite and fixed purpose, and so shape their destiny each day, by word and deed, so that at some date not far in the future they may be able to achieve the crowning event of their lives.

It is only human that we should each desire to have in our own name much of this world's goods, sufficient at least to provide for comfort and independence during our old age. It is quite true that only a lucky few attain this position in the days of their youth.

Are you satisfied with your future prospects? Do you know beyond the shadow of a doubt that within three or five years' time you will amass a fortune?

Could you say to yourself, right now, that in the next eighteen months you will have practically made or saved from the investments which you are making today sufficient funds to provide for yourself and family a comfortable living for ten years' time?

Millions from a few Dollars in Oil

Chansor and Canfield were both poor prospectors. Realizing the great possibilities and future of the California oilfields, they placed their savings in the oil industry and are today rated as multi-millionaires.

Zed Phillips, four years ago last September, alighted from the train in the Coalinga Field, and was the possessor of $23. The magic "23" did not disturb him; he was the proud owner of a million dollars' worth of grit, nerve and energy. He worked hard, saved his money, and did things. He invested his earnings in the oil fields and as a result he is now worth a quarter of a million.

It would be difficult to devote much space to such men as Doherty, O'Donnell, Chansor, Hardison, Stewart and thousands of others who through small investments in the oil industry of California became men of wealth.

Don't sigh and regret—Do something

We often look back and think to ourselves that had our foresight been as good as our hindsight, we would have done differently. This looking back to disappointments that have passed is particularly interesting in connection with the California oil fields.

Others have made Money in Oil—Why not You?

The following is a list of "ifs" that are opening investors' eyes to the possibilities of California oil shares:

If you had invested $100 at ground floor prices in—
Silver Tip, you could have made.....$ 600
W.K., you could have made.....1000
Sterling, you could have made.....1000
Premier, you could have made.....1100
Monte Cristo, you could have made.....1120
Record, you could have made.....2000
S. F. & McK., you could have made.....2400
Sauer Dough, you could have made.....4160
Lucile, you could have made.....5000
San Joaquin, you could have made.....5700
Pearless, you could have made.....350
Kern River, you could have made.....9500
Central Oil, you could have made.....15000
If you had purchased Pinal Oil shares at 25¢ per share, you could have sold at $25 per share; it pays a regular monthly dividend of 15¢ per share—a monthly income of $50 on an original investment of $100.

When the "Silver Tip" well in the Coalinga oil fields came in, this stock jumped in a night from $60¢ to $4 and has been paying a dividend of 10¢ per share ever since. This is recent history having occurred but a short time ago.

You have the same opportunities today in the Coalinga oil fields and plenty of them, but you must think, reason and analyze for yourself before you can hope to acquire your share of the world's wealth, you must have the courage of your convictions and act.

Advantages of Investments in Oil Securities

It is stated by the best of oil authorities that 90 per cent. of the wells drilled in the proven zone of the Coalinga field produce oil. You must therefore realize that the element of risk in an oil investment is practically eliminated. Furthermore, placing your money in oil companies means quick, and in most cases, large returns, particularly so in cases where the companies are operating in shallow territory which assures inexpensive drilling and quick action on the invested capital.

Crude oil at the present market price is being purchased from the producer at sixty-three cents per barrel at the well. Mr. Aubrey, California State Mineralogist, states that oil at $1 per barrel is cheaper fuel than coal. Two and a half barrels of oil are equal to as fuel a ton of coal, so that quantity of oil at a dollar a barrel or 25¢ is the equal of a ton of coal at $8.00.

Taking the federal geologist's figures as a basis of calculation, there is at present in the Coalinga District oil worth $2,000,000,000. The great Comstock mines produced only $645,000,000.

The Property of the Coalinga Eureka Oil Company close to great Cusher Well

The holdings of the Coalinga Eureka Oil Company consists of eighty acres, situated in Section 24, Township 21 South, Range 14 East, Fresno County, California, separated by only two sections from the famous Section 16, the home of the great "Silver Tip" gusher, and of Lucile, Amy, Pacific States Oil Companies, etc., all of whom rank foremost among the big producers of this great field. Section 18, adjoining the Coalinga Eureka property, is the scene of unequalled activity. Derricks have been built, tools hauled out and drilling operations are being carried on with relentless energy. It is the undoubted opinion of experts and practical oil men that Sections 18 and 24 are destined to produce some of the most remarkable wells in the Coalinga field. E. W. Preston, probably the best expert in the whole of the Coalinga field, and Superintendent of the Consolidate Oil Company (which joins our Coalinga Eureka property) also General Manager of the New York Coalinga and Aladdin Oil Companies (all producing) writes regarding the property of the Coalinga Eureka Oil Company:

"You ask me to give an expert report on your land in Sections 24, 21 and 14. I have just returned from a very careful examination of the property. You have the same identical formation that has made the entire west side of the Coalinga field famous. You are sure to get good wells at medium depth. This property joins our property and I have been trying to purchase this same tract. While I regret that we were unable to procure it, I cannot refrain from congratulating you on securing such a desirable piece of oil land. It means success to your Company."

Plans of the Company

It is the plan of the Company to drill and complete at least four wells during the present year. These wells, according to the output of the wells on adjacent property, should have an average yield of 400 barrels per well, or 1,600 barrels per day, 48,000 barrels per month, which would enable the Company to pay dividends to the stockholders of from 3 to 5 per cent. per month, besides holding in reserve a large sum of money for further development.

Stocks and Disposition of Funds

To complete their first well, the Company is placing on the market a block of 50,000 shares of Treasury Stock, fully paid and non-assessable, at 25¢ per share; when this stock is disposed of, the price will be materially advanced.

The money received from the sale of this stock will be expended in developing the property, and not in fancy salaries. There are no salaried officials.

Our Officers and Directors

Edward Meath, the President holds the very responsible position of Treasurer of Pierce County, Washington. Mr. Meath is identified with some of the largest commercial and financial institutions in that State, and is considered to be one of the most forceful, energetic, and successful business men in the State of Washington.

Hon. W. H. Kerr, the Vice-President, is an ex-Superior Court Judge of Fresno County, California. Judge Kerr is one of the first settlers and pioneer operators in the Coalinga field. It is the consensus of opinion that he is today the best informed person in the oil industry throughout the State of California, and is one of the ablest oil experts and operators in all the California oil fields.

Judge Kerr will take care of all development work on the Company's property, giving it his undivided personal attention, thereby assuring good judgment and conservatism in the management of the Company's field operations.

A. Roland, the Secretary, is one of the early operators in the Coalinga oil field and is prominently identified with the oil industry throughout the State of California. He is a man of unquestionable integrity and superior judgment.

E. Y. Grasset, one of Vancouver's most prominent contractors, a native son of Ontario, well known in social and commercial circles in Toronto. Mr. Grasset has proved himself to be thoroughly conversant with all matters of finance, and from the manner which he has succeeded in his own business, has been elected to the Board of Directors of this Company.

Mr. Grasset is a valuable acquisition to the Board of Directors; careful in his judgments, conservative in all his business undertakings, thoroughly experienced in the control of corporations. He will render a good account of himself and will surely act in the best interests of the shareholders of this Company.

H. S. Ford, M.D., C.M., one of our leading physicians, is a graduate of McGill University, Montreal, and is a well-known practitioner. He has established a most enviable reputation as a successful business man; far-seeing in all his investments and possessing natural shrewdness, he has proved himself to be a master of finance and a very capable business manager.

So promising are the holdings of this Company, so good the prospects of the same, that eminent geologists and oil experts say that the Coalinga-Eureka Oil Company will bring into existence in the very near future oil wells which will produce enormous profits for the shareholders.

Now is your opportunity to acquire a holding in this corporation when the shares are selling at ground floor prices.

Only a limited block of stock is to be sold at the ground floor price of 25¢ per share.

We expect that the issue of 50,000 shares at 25¢ per share will be over-subscribed within the next two weeks' time.

No applications will be received for shares at 25¢ after Saturday, May 28th. Should there remain any unsold shares after that date they will be withdrawn from the market and a new issue placed on the market on June 1st at, in all probability, 35¢ or 40¢. The price will be advanced from month to month as the development of the property warrants. It is expected that on the 1st of July the shares will be selling at 60¢ or 75¢ each.

Do not delay in mailing your application since this advertising announcement appears in over 200 publications and there are only 50,000 shares to be sold at 25¢.

Sit down now and wire the Coalinga-Eureka Oil Company, Vancouver, to reserve your shares, then mail your cash payment by first mail.

Remit by cheque, bank draft, express money order or postal note, and make all payments payable to George L. Taschereau, Trustee, for the Coalinga-Eureka Oil Company, at par, in Vancouver, B.C.

ly growing in the orderly processes of time—such a sense of solidarity it has been the special function of His Majesty, King Edward the Seventh to foster and encourage and cement beyond the possibility of fracture.

Edward VII. and America

Precisely half a century has passed since the late King, then the young Prince of Wales, traveled through the U. S. and by his unflinching tact and gracious courtesy sowed the seeds of that personal admiration and affection which has now become traditional in America. In that visit, as he passed now at one place and now at another, he planted an elm tree as a memorial; and those who held him in honor have become veritable symbols in their steadfast growth and mighty proportions, of the steadily increasing affection and wide-spread confidence in which these trans-Atlantic English cherished him.

Nor were this affection and confidence founded on mere unreasoning sentiment. The intimate relations which have always existed between our ambassadors at the Court of St. James and the King, the cordial social relations which he always maintained with the English aristocracy; his co-operation (now a matter of general knowledge), his co-operation with President Roosevelt in saving the other civilized nations from being drawn into the war between Japan and Russia; his support of Roosevelt in bringing about the American peace congress, which ended that war; the large part which he personally played in connection with the blockade of Venezuela in directing British diplomacy so as to avoid any friction between England and the United States; his personal efforts to smooth over the sense of dissatisfaction in England and Canada over the Alaska arbitration case—all these have combined to make every enlightened American see in King Edward VII. not only the wise and far-sighted ruler, but the steadiest friend.

And now the King is dead.

The glories of our blood and state. Are shadows, not substantial things. There is no armor against fate; Death lays his icy hand on kings; Sceptre and crown Must tumble down.

And the dearest be equal made. With the poor crooked scythe and spade.

In the plenitude of his greatness, we are suddenly overwhelmed with the sense of his mortality. The glitter and the tinsel, and all the accretions of pomp which doth hedge about a king are shattered in a moment by the unsparring hand of death. But out of this cataclysm of artificial greatness emerges an unlying personality to whom all the English speaking world—English and Canadians and Americans alike—cling together to do honor or—great because he was King of England, for that was but the accident of his birth; but great because he was Edward the Peacemaker, who labored in the cause of true progress and sought to weld his Americans and his subjects of the British Empire into one indissoluble fabric of life.

Anglo-Saxon race. All honor, then, not to the King's shattered majesty, but to the man's gracious wisdom—

"Storm clouds loomed on the political horizon, and the way seemed dark and imperable, but he showed the way clearly. Visits, he paid abroad and we know not what transpired during them; but we know that after each one there seemed to be a friendlier feeling, a better understanding.

Winipeg, May 21.—It is expected here that the Canadian Northern Railway will secure the contract to build the Hudson Bay road. The reason advanced is that the C.N.R. is in a position to offer the lowest tender on account of their having a line to the Pas, one of the terminals of the new road. They have by this the advantage of being better able to send into the north country such machinery, labor, and other things as are necessary for the construction. It is understood that the government will call for tenders this summer.
